Hotel Management TASTER

Run in conjunction with the Novotel Auckland and TIA – Tourism Industry Aotearoa

What is it really like working in a hotel? What different roles are available in the industry? How can I get my first job in a hotel?

This brand new exciting one day taster has been developed in conjunction with the Tourism Industry Aotearoa and will take students on a journey to discover all the exciting career opportunities in the accommodation sector.

Based at the Novotel Auckland Airport Hotel, students will get a first-hand, behind the scenes look at the hotel industry. Staff members from the hotel will be guest speakers, giving students an insight into the real day to day experience of working in a hotel. The staff will also discuss the different entry level opportunities available and the future career opportunities within the industry.

Students will come away excited about the industry, having an understanding of the career possibilities and different terminology used within the industry. The day includes an exciting 'behind the scenes' look at the hotel, demonstrations from different hotel departments and interesting talks from hotel employees who have made a career in the hotel industry.
